Rationale for Amendment: The Constitution does not currently state explicitly whether or not the use of internet is allowed in Congressional Debate. This ambiguity should be cleared up by either explicitly banning or allowing internet usage in this event.

Section of Constitution Where Change Occurs: Standing Rules: Competition Event Guide

Add, Delete, or Amend: Add

Implementation Timeframe: Immediately upon passage

Proposed Change: Under "Use of Computers During a Round," the highlighted word will be added:

The use of wireless internet is permitted in Policy, Lincoln-Douglas, Congressional, and Public Forum debate with the following conditions.
